Ball Brothers, of Versailles, have priced Montgomery Chief, their famous stallion, at $20,000. C. T. Hewitt, of Quincy, Ill., is the prospective buyer.

The farm, containing 400 acres, just north of Shelbyville, was sold at depreciation. The price realized was $100 an acre, making the total consideration $10,000.

E. H. Beasley & Co. have received another car load of horses this week. They are selling them cheap and many farmers are buying teams. If you need a work horse, see them.

A fine premium list is shown at the Lexington Elks Fair this year. The dates of the fair are August 10 to 15 inclusive. Catalogues are now out and can be had on application to Secretary Paul M. Justice. There will be four $500 purse races for trotters and pacers besides running races each day. Besides these there will be several handsome cup races and other special rings. The live stock exhibition promises to be bigger and better than ever this year. DeSauvage's 20th Century Band of Chicago will furnish music and one fare the round trip has been granted by all railroads.

HUBBLE.

Miss Lizzie Lay is with friends in Somerset.

The ladies of the Christian church raised $11 at their ice cream supper Saturday night.

Sweeney Morgan received John Robison's hogs here Tuesday, bought some time back, at 8¢.

We are glad to note that Mrs. Tom Peace is convalescing. Mrs. Hines, of Paint Lick, is visiting her aunt, Mrs. A. L. Spoonamore.

Mrs. Mollie Critts, of Kingman, Ohio, is visiting her father, G. A. Eubanks, at Hedgeville. Miss Hazel Stone, of Stanford, is visiting Miss Jewell Spoonamore.

Felix and Jake White sold some butcher stuff to O. P. Huffman at 3½ Hubble. Eubanks and Weaver shipped a car-load of hogs to Cincinnati this week, of their own raising.

Eld F. M. Tindler will fill his appointment at the Christian church here Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock. He has returned from the National convention in Denver, Colorado.

By special inducement from the trustees of the Crab Orchard school, Dr. Hickle has agreed to teach a second term there. We congratulate the people upon securing such an efficient teacher and worthy young man.

In Montana.

HOOPMAN, MONT., July 4.—To-day is the 4th of July and I thought I would write a little letter to my good old home democratic paper. This leaves a portion of Montana covered with snow.

It is a curiosity for a Kentuckian to see snow on July 4th. I am living about five miles from a fine little city of about 5,000. Many different kinds of people.

This valley is about 75 miles long and 10 miles wide and is rich and level. We don't raise any corn here at all, but lots of fine wheat, oats and barley. Farmers say if nothing happens they will have an average of 40 bushels to the acre. Oats make from 50 to 125 bushels to the acre and potatoes, no end to them. Well Mr. Editor, I will not detail you longer. I see in your paper that my father is a candidate for jailor. Tell him when you see him to fight them to a finish. He sure and send my paper. I remain a true democrat until Gabriel blows his horn. Yours truly,

T. HAYES

HIGHLAND.

Blackberrying seems to be the order of the day at present.

School begins in the Mt. Moriah District Monday morning by Mr. John Ware of Palatki.

The warm weather and plentiful rains are pushing along the growing crops wonderfully.

Eld. John Ware filed his regular appointments Saturday and Sunday at the Christian church.

School will begin in our district next Monday by Miss Anna Goebel, of Waycross. Also in the Green Ridge district by Miss Ora Williams, of near Hobson.

Mr. Cap Butt and Mrs. Mike Floyd are on the sick list. Mr. John Reed is improving. Miss Myrtle Norris had the misfortune to snap her foot Monday, causing a very painful wound.

Mr. J. W. Norris and son, Charlie, left last week for Hugo, Kansas. Mr. N. thinks of moving his family there later on. Mrs. G. W. Young, son and daughter arrived from Hugo, Kansas, last week.

Rev. George Thompson is expected to fill his regular appointment at the Methodist church on next Saturday night, but will go to Cook's Chapel on Sunday to be present at the children's day exercises.

Dalley Hutchison, who recently went to Indianapolis in search of employment, has returned home on account of his health. Mr. Bender, of Cincinnati, is visiting Joseph Ernst. Emil Meier, of Danville, is spending a few days with his parents here. Mr. Tatzen representing The Chattanooga Medicole Co., was at our place yesterday. Mrs. Lizzie Walls is visiting at Kingsville.

On Thursday morning three of our citizens lay dead within a radius of half-mile. The funerals of Wm. Rogers and Oliver, the little child of Mr. Wm. Reid, were conducted at the same time at the Methodist church on Thursday afternoon by Revs. Long and Cook, and on Friday at 10 A.M. the remains of Mrs. Ida Reid were laid away to rest at Mt. Moriah after funeral services conducted by Revs. Long and Cook.

Labor unions in Evansville are waging war on members of the local militia company because of the part they took in the recent riot. At least 40 members have been deprived of employment. Several members have been assaulted on the streets, presumably by members of the union.

The force of militia at Jackson has been increased to 130. It has been decided that C. J. Little shall serve as collector to bring witnesses from Breathitt county to the trials of Jett and White at Cynthiana. Gov. Beckham has directed the summer encampment of the Second regiment to be held at Jackson, not more than 200 men to be there at any one time. A company of Infantry will also be on duty at Cynthiana during the trials.

Brutally Tortured.

A case came to light that for persistent and numerous torture has perhaps never been equalled. Joe Golobick of Coloma, Cal., writes: "For 15 years I endured insufferable pain from Rheumatism and nothing relieved me though I tried everything known. I canoed across Electric Bittern and its the greatest medicine on earth for that trouble. A few bottles of it completely relieved and cured me."

Just as good for Liver and Kidney troubles and general debility. Only 50¢ Satisfaction guaranteed by all druggists.

Americans are wearing diamonds,

Democratic Ticket.

For Governor,
J. C. W. BECKHAM.

For Lieutenant Governor,
W. P. THORNE.

For Auditor of State,
S. W. HAGER.

For Treasurer,
H. M. BOSWORTH.

For Attorney General,
N. B. HAYS.

For Secretary of State,
H. V. McCLESEY.

For Superintendent of Public Instruction,
J. H. FUQUA.

For Commissioner of Agriculture,
HUBERT VREELAND.

For Clerk of Court of Appeals,
J. MORGAN CHINN.

For Railroad Commissioner,
C. C. M'CHORD

For Circuit Judge,
W. CONN BELL.

For Commonwealth's Attorney,
CHARLES A. HARDIN,

For Circuit Clerk,
J. F. HOLDAM

For Representative,
J. M. ALVERSON

The following is what Judge M. C. Saufley had to say before the State Central Committee at Frankfort, after being informed that Hon. W. C. Bell had been declared the nominee for circuit judge in this district, which shows what kind of a democrat he is: "Mr. Chalmers: The formal communication of your committee that by its deliberate and well considered action my honorable opponent, Mr. Bell, has been declared to be the nominee of our party, conveys to me no message of news. I thank you for that courtesy which suggested that I be invited to renew before you my pledge of devotion to our party principles and loyalty to our organization. More than 30 years ago I beat my knee at the altar of the democratic party, and since that act of primal homage to doctrine, to party order and discipline, I may be pardoned for saying I have followed the party flag whenever and wherever it has lead. This consistent and unbroken devotion shall furnish my best guaranty of what I shall do in the future. W. C. Bell is personally and politically my friend. I pledge to him my cordial support."

THE INTERIOR JOURNAL is for Hon. W. Conn Bell for circuit judge and Hon. Charles A. Hardin for Commonwealth's attorney and it proposes to do all in its power to elect those gentlemen. They are the nominees of the democratic party, are worthy of the offices they aspire, are themselves democrats without taint of suspicion and there is no doubt of their election if democrats do their duty. Of course this paper preferred its townsmen, Judge M. C. Saufley and Hon. John Sam Owsley, Jr., and was disappointed when their defeat was announced, but it has no kick coming and will cheerfully support the gentlemen from Harrodsburg as it would have the distinguished citizens of Stanford who aspired to the offices. So here's to Bell and Hardin, who can and will defeat any republicans who put their heads up and who will prove creditable alike to themselves and the good old democratic party.

BELKNAP is the lamb for slaughter. He was nominated for governor on the first ballot by the republican convention in Louisville last evening. Gov. Bradley was the choice of the convention and could have easily won the empty honor if he had wanted it. A. E. Willson's name did not go before the convention.

THE speech of Commonwealth Attorney J. S. Owsley, Jr., before the State Central Committee at Frankfort Tuesday is highly complimented by those who heard it. He gracefully accepted his defeat and pledged his time and means toward the election of his successful opponent and Mr. Bell.

THE amount of binder twine used is enormous. It took nearly 100,000 tons to tie up last year's wheat crop and this year many think it will run up to 110,000 to 120,000 tons. It was formerly a product of the cordage makers, and the cornering of binder twine was the immediate occasion of the collapse of the cordage trust, which precipitated the panic of 10 years ago. Of late years the manufacturers of harvesting machinery have been making binder twine in order to protect their customers, but the harvester manufacturers are in a combing themselves now and trying to gouge the farmer to the point of giving up the last pound of flesh.

THE school per capita this year will be $2.00, a steady increase since the present administration began and an increase of 28 cents over last year. To pay off the State debt, increase the school per capita and restore order where chaos reigned, are reasons sufficient for the re-election of a democratic ticket, even if there were not a thousand and one other reasons.

WE rise to call the attention of the Advocate and INTERIOR JOURNAL to their candidature list, which needs revision. We will all get together now. The trial heats are over.—Harrodsburg Herald. Look at our list this morning and see if it suits you. If it does not, wire us at our expense and we may try again.

THE republicans paid W. C. Owens off by making him temporary chairman of their convention. Not much reward for a fellow who used to be as hot a democrat as Maj. Owens had people thinking he was.

THE Adair News is tickled because Ex-Lient. Gov. J. R. Hindman has cast his lot with the republicans. It says it took him seven years to make up his mind where to go after he left the party that made him.

POLITICAL.

The State campaign will be directed from Louisville.

Rev. R. F. Mills, prohibition candidate for Representative in Clinton county, has withdrawn from the race.

Former Gov. McMillen, of Tennessee, says he has no idea of quitting the race for Senator and that he is in the fight to stay.

Judge James Gourley, of Breathitt, has announced for the republican nomination for circuit judge in the Breathitt district.

All's well that ends well. The warring factions in the 13th judicial district have sheathed their swords and will unite with Saufley and Owsley in giving Bell and Hardin a rousing majority for judge and commonwealth's attorney—Lexington Democrat.

The State Central Committee has recommended to Gov. Beckham for election commissioner for the State board, Hon. Charles B. Poyntz, of Mayfield. He is a splendid gentleman and one of the best democrats in the State.

The republicans of Breathitt county adopted the following resolution at their convention last Saturday: "We condemn and point with shame to the lawlessness existing in Breathitt county and pledge our efforts to restore law and order in our midst, and to secure this end we call upon Charles Terry to make the race for sheriff of this county at the ensuing November election and pledge to him our undivided support."

After the Saufley-Bell contest the State Committee took up the Bush-Cook contest from the Calloway-Lyon judicial district. The committee decided in favor of Judge Cook, making him the party nominee. It also decided against the committee man appointed in that district by Central Committee Clem J. Whittemore, and in favor of the old committee. The action was by vote of 9 to 2. Whittemore and Griffith being the minority. The committee then adjourned.

Judge M. C. Saufley and Hon. John Sam Owsley, by going before the Committee of their own accord, and in elegant speeches endorsing the nominees for Circuit Judge and Commonwealth Attorney in this district, have endeared themselves to the hearts of the voters of the community. It was an action, however, that was to be expected from men of such known democracy, and their friends and supporters will follow their example. The News is for either of them for anything they desire in the future from the people—Danville News.

CHURCH MATTERS.

Eld. C. E. Powell will preach at Willow Grove at 3 Sunday afternoon.

Rev. J. E. Woodford has resigned as pastor of the Baptist church at Lancaster.

A congregational meeting of the Presbyterian church has been called for next Sunday. A full attendance is earnestly desired.

President Burris A. Jenkins, of Kentucky University, Lexington, will be the guest of Rev. J. W. Hagle from Saturday until Monday and will preach at the Christian church Sunday morning and evening.

The Sunday school teachers and superintendents of New Jersey have declared war on Santa Claus. If these good people had come into the world as Jersey mosquitoes the loss to mankind would not have been irreparable.—Courier Journal.

IN NEIGHBORING COUNTIES.

Robert Quinn, aged 88, is dead at Nicholaville.

Paris Wheeler, a horseman of Mayfield, committed suicide.

James A. Welsh, of Nicholaville, died in a Lexington hospital.

The republicans of Breathitt county adopted the following resolution at their convention last Saturday: "We condemn and point with shame to the lawlessness existing in Breathitt county and pledge our efforts to restore law and order in our midst, and to secure this end we call upon Charles Terry to make the race for sheriff of this county at the ensuing November election and pledge to him our undivided support."

After the Saufley-Bell contest the State Committee took up the Bush-Cook contest from the Calloway-Lyon judicial district. The committee decided in favor of Judge Cook, making him the party nominee. It also decided against the committee man appointed in that district by Central Committee Clem J. Whittemore, and in favor of the old committee. The action was by vote of 9 to 2. Whittemore and Griffith being the minority. The committee then adjourned.

Judge M. C. Saufley and Hon. John Sam Owsley, by going before the Committee of their own accord, and in elegant speeches endorsing the nominees for Circuit Judge and Commonwealth Attorney in this district, have endeared themselves to the hearts of the voters of the community. It was an action, however, that was to be expected from men of such known democracy, and their friends and supporters will follow their example. The News is for either of them for anything they desire in the future from the people—Danville News.

Al's well that ends well. The warring factions in the 13th judicial district have sheathed their swords and will unite with Saufley and Owsley in giving Bell and Hardin a rousing majority for judge and commonwealth's attorney—Lexington Democrat.

The State Central Committee has recommended to Gov. Beckham for election commissioner for the State board, Hon. Charles B. Poyntz, of Mayfield. He is a splendid gentleman and one of the best democrats in the State.

AS illustrative of the state of mind of the Stanford delegation immediately after the decision at Frankfort on the Saufley-Bell contest, the following story is being told. A party of about a dozen of our leading citizens were walking in gloomy silence at the station for their train. At the time there was being held in Frankfort a convention of the undertakers of the State. A newsboy sat down by Col. Welch and asked:

"Are you all going home?" The colonel responded that they were. After critically surveying the crowd a moment the newsboy again enquired:

"You all are the undertakers ain't you?" "No, my boy," responded Col. Welch, "we are not the undertakers; we are the undertook."

McKINNEY—W. Frank McKinney,

deputy sheriff and one of the best known and best liked young men in Stanford, died at 9:50 last night of heart trouble after an illness of several weeks. He was survived by a wife and three little children, an aged mother, a sister and brother, all of whom are heart-broken over his demise. His death is one of the saddest in our recollection and a gloom is cast over the entire section by the announcement of it. When Mr. McKinney was informed that he could not get well he expressed his willingness and readiness to meet his maker. He was a consistent member of the Presbyterian church, a good citizen and one who will be sadly missed in Stanford. The burial will occur in Buffalo Cemetery at 10 o'clock to-morrow morning after short services at the grave.

SERGEANT BERGER only succeeded in getting two recruits, Joseph Baugh and James Blunker. Two Kennedys and a youth named Polsgroves were examined but did not pass.

DON'T buy shoddy goods when you can get the best grades made from us at greatly reduced prices. Big reduction on all summer goods. Silks still going at less than cost price. John P. Jones.

NOTICE—All vehicles that expect to carry passengers from Crab Orchard to the fair must get license at the secretary's office in Crab Orchard the afternoon before the fair begins. W. D. Watson, Secy.

YESTERDAY'S Lexington Democrat says: President R. H. Bronnaugh, of the Crab Orchard Fair, is in the city to interview the running men in his meeting, to occur July 22-25. The company has the finest half-mile track in the State, and the races are always a feature of the excellent exhibition.

THE Cumberland Valley Land Co. held its annual meeting at the First National Bank Wednesday and elected the following officers: President, Vincent Horning; Secretary and Treasurer, J. S. Hockner; Director, Vincent Horning; Robert Hayd, J. S. Hockner, John Fox, Jr., James W. Fox, Furestus Held, W. P. Walton, J. A. Craft, J. W. Hayden. The company has now on hand about $15,000 in cash and the directors will meet Aug. 12, this city, to share a dividend.

THERE was general disappointment when it was made known here Tuesday noon that Judge M. C. Saulpy and Hon. John Sam Owles Jr., had been defeated before the State Central Committee. There was little or no kicking, however, and democrats generally expressed themselves as ready and willing to go to work for Messrs. Bell and Hardin. They are the regular nominees now and he is a poor democrat indeed who will not rally to their support and do all in his power to help carry their banner to victory this fall.

THE Lexington Democrat has this to say about one of Stanford's good citizens: Hon. R. C. Warren, of Lincoln county, who was in the city last evening returning from Frankfort, told a reporter of The Democrat that he was a candidate for Congress and in the race to stay and win. Mr. Warren is one of those simon pure democrats who serves his party early and late and votes and works for its tickets. He has done more perhaps than any other man in his section to advance the cause of democracy and its candidates and got less for himself than anybody, and now he thinks and hundreds of his friends too, that his time has come. Mr. Warren is admirably equipped for the office he seeks and would do credit to the old eighth district.

If women would pay more attention to their health we would have more happy wives, mothers and daughters, and if they would observe results they would find that the doctors' prescriptions do not perform the many cures they are given credit for.

In consulting with my druggist he advised McElree's Wine of Cardui and Thedford's Black Draught, and so I took it and have every reason to thank him for a new life opened up to me with restored health, and it only took three months to cure me."

Wine of Cardui is a regulator of the menstrual functions and is a most astonishing tonic for women. It cures scanty, suppressed, tooth-ache, irregular and painful menstruation, falling of the womb, whites and flooding. It is helpful when approaching womanhood, during pregnancy, after child-birth and in change of life. It frequently brings a dear baby to homes that have been barren for years. All druggists have $1.00 bottles of Wine of Cardui.

THIS AND THAT.

Wisconsin Elks are holding their annual State reunion at Ashland.

Two hundred paper mill workers are on strike at Steubenville, Ohio.

Democrats of the Bath-Rowan district nominated Charles E. Day, of Morehead, for the Legislature.

Mrs. Delight Prentiss, an authoress, known as "Delight Sweetzer," committed suicide at Cleveland, O.

One boy was killed and five injured on the Pennsylvania railroad while stealing a tide in a box car.

Fitz William Guerin, one of the best-known photographers in the United States, is dead at San Francisco.

The 16th annual convention of the National Association of Railway Commissioners is in session at Portland, Maine.

Mrs. Jas. Alton, of Wheatland, Ind., forced her way into a saloon by breaking down the doors, drove out her husband and smashed the mirrors with beer bottles.

Robert Shaw Oliver, who has just been agreed upon for Assistant Secretary of War, is said to be slated for a Cabinet berth upon the retirement of Secretary Root.

Five members of the Evansville militia are said to have lost their positions since the riot, and the Business Men's Association of the city will inquire into the matter.

In a suit for divorce filed at Winchester, Va., Mrs. Charles Thurman alleges that her wealthy husband, Gen. Thurman, had her incarcerated in an insane asylum, whence she was rescued after several months. Both come of distinguished Tennessee families.

Circuit Attorney Folk has secured unquestionable evidence that $200,000 was dumped into the Legislature of Missouri to buy a passage for the bid by which a St. Louis street railway monopoly was secured. The company then got this money back and made a profit besides by watering the stock to the extent of $80,000,000. On account of the state of limitation many corrupt legislators will escape prosecution.
